Services November 2026

1st at 11am - Live streaming from Edinburgh - the Church will be open as usual for those who wish to gather.

1st at 7pm (Zoom only) Belonging: with Roddy Macpherson, Alison Spurway, Ali Briggs & Stephanie Little, bringing you a collection of contributions.

8th at 11am (in person and on Zoom) The annual Armistice Service led by Donald Jacobs

15th at 11am (in person and on Zoom) Interfaith week. A joint service with the Bahá'í, Quakers and Unitarians.

A lunch will be served after the service to welcome the Quakers to Unitarian House and we have also been invited to join CGMi for their service at 2pm.

22nd (in person and on Zoom) Jim Millar: My big TOE. As physics approaches a theory of everything (TOE) it throws up surprising ideas which often mirror traditional religious ideas. Can TOE form the basis of a new religion?
29th Ali Briggs: How can I keep from singing ably abetted by Alison Spurway. Ali will choose a few of her favourite hymns.

Don't forget, we also have Barry's virtual coffee on Tuesdays at 11am on Zoom and Linda's round tables to look forward to.
Not to mention Tom's art nights, the Ministry sub & Trustee meetings.
There's a lot going on at GUC.
